- Can narrate a story.

Essays:

- Can write short, simple essays on topics of interest.

SPEAKING

Overall spoken interaction:

- Can enter unprepared into conversation of familiar topics, express personal opinions and exchange information on topics that are familiar, of personal interest or pertinent to everyday life.
- Can express thoughts on more abstract, cultural topics such as films, books, music etc.
- Can reasonably fluently sustain a straightforward description of one of a variety of subjects within his/her field of interest, presenting it as a linear sequence of points.
- Can keep going comprehensibly, even though pausing for grammatical and lexical planning and repair is very evident, especially in longer stretches of free production.

Conversation:

- Can maintain a conversation or discussion but may sometimes be difficult to follow when trying to say exactly what he/she would like to.

Informal / formal discussion:

- Can follow much of what is said around him/her on general topics, and can give or seek personal views and opinions in discussing topics of interest.
- Can express his/her thoughts about abstract or cultural topics such as music, films.
- Can express belief, opinion, agreement and disagreement politely.

Goal-oriented co-operation:

- Can make his/her opinions and reactions understood as regards possible solutions or the question of what to do next, giving brief reasons and explanations.
- Can invite others to give their views on how to proceed.

Information exchange:

- Can find out and pass on straightforward factual information.
- Can exchange, check and confirm accumulated factual information on familiar routine and non- routine matters within his/her field with some confidence.
- Can describe how to do something, giving detailed instructions.
- Can ask for and follow detailed directions.

Interviewing and being interviewed:

- Can carry out a prepared interview, checking and confirming information, though he/she may occasionally have to ask for repetition if the other person's response is rapid or extended.

Sustained monologue:

- Can describe experience

Overall spoken production:

- Can reasonably fluently sustain a straightforward description of one of a variety of subjects within his/her field of interest, presenting it as a linear sequence of points.

PRODUCTION STRATEGIES

Planning:

- Can work out how to communicate the main point(s) he/she wants to get across, exploiting any resources available and limiting the message to what he/she can recall or find the means to express.

RECEPTION STRATEGIES

Identifying cues & inferring:

- Can make basic inferences or predictions about text content from headings, titles or headlines.
- Can listen to a short narrative and predict what will happen next.
- Can follow a line of argument or the sequence of events in a story, by focusing on common logical connectors (e.g. however, because) and temporal connectors (e.g. after that, beforehand).

- Can deduce the probable meaning of unknown words in a written text by identifying their constituent part (e.g. identifying word roots, lexical elements, suffixes and prefixes)

INTERACTION

Online conversation and discussion

- Can post a comprehensible contribution in an online discussion on a familiar topic of interest, provided that he/she can prepare the text beforehand and use online tools to fill gaps in language and check accuracy.
- Can make personal online postings about experiences, feelings and events and respond individually to the comments of others in some detail, though lexical limitations sometimes cause repetition and inappropriate formulation.

Goal-oriented online transactions and collaboration

- Can engage in online collaborative or transactional exchanges that require simple clarification or explanation of relevant details, such as registering for a course, tour, event or applying for membership.
- Can interact online with a partner or small group working on a project, provided there are visual aids such as images, statistics and graphs to clarify more complex concepts.
- Can respond to instructions and ask questions or request clarifications in order to accomplish a shared task online

INTERACTION STRATEGIES

Taking the floor (Turntaking)

- Can initiate, maintain and close simple face-to-face conversation on topics that are familiar or of personal interest.

Co-operating

- Can repeat back part of what someone has said to confirm mutual understanding and help keep the development of ideas on course.
- Can invite others into the discussion.

Asking for clarification

- Can ask someone to clarify or elaborate what he or she has just said.

MEDIATION

Overall mediation:

- Can collaborate with people from other backgrounds, showing interest and empathy by asking and answering simple questions, formulating and responding to suggestions, asking whether people agree, and proposing alternative approaches. Can convey the main points made in long texts expressed in uncomplicated language on topics of personal interest, provided they can check the meaning of certain expressions.
- Can introduce people from different backgrounds, showing awareness that some questions may be perceived differently, and invite other people to contribute their expertise and experience as well as their views.

Processing text in speech or sign:

- Can summarise (in Language B) the main points made in clear, well-structured texts (in Language A) on subjects that are familiar or of personal interest, although lexical limitations cause difficulty with formulation at times.
- Can summarise (in Language B) the main points made during a conversation (in Language A) on a subject of personal or current interest, provided people articulated clearly.

Processing text in writing:

- Can summarise in writing (in Language B) the main points made in straightforward, informational texts (in Language A) on subjects that are of personal or current interest, provided oral texts are clearly articulated.

COMMUNICATIVE LANGUAGE COMPETENCE

Linguistic range

Vocabulary range:

- Has a sufficient vocabulary to express him/herself with some circumlocutions on most topics pertinent to his/her everyday life such as family, hobbies and interests, work, travel, and current events.

Linguistic control:

Grammatical accuracy:

- Communicates with reasonable accuracy in familiar contexts; generally good control though with noticeable mother tongue influence. Errors occur, but it is clear what he/she is trying to express.
- Uses reasonably accurately a repertoire of frequently used 'routines' and patterns associated with more predictable situations.

Vocabulary control:

- Shows good control of elementary vocabulary but major errors still occur when expressing more complex thoughts or handling unfamiliar topics and situations.

Phonological control:

- Pronunciation is clearly intelligible even if a foreign accent is sometimes evident and occasional mispronunciations occur.

Orthographic control:

- Can produce continuous writing, which is generally intelligible throughout. Spelling, punctuation and layout are accurate enough to be followed most of the time.

Sociolinguistic appropriateness:

- Can perform and respond to a wide range of language functions, using their most common exponents in a neutral register.
